GARDEN ISLAND SUFFERS MUCH FROM RAIN STORM

Damage which probably will be estimated at more than $50,000 has been done to private and public property on Kauai as the result of a terrific rainstorm which swept the Garden Island Saturday and Sunday, according to wireless dispatches which have been received in Honolulu from Lihue. Between 11 and 17 inches of rain fell within a few hours, culminating in a flood which last night swept from Lihue to Hanalei.

A small loss of life is reported to be coupled with the property damage, two Chinese boys having been drowned at Anahola and a Japanese electrocuted by a falling live wire. The majority of the damage was done to the roads, the estimate being more than $20,000. On the main road at Nawiliwili landing, a strip 100 feet wide and 20 feet deep was washed away. The light and power plants at Nawiliwili were put out of commission by the storm and the main reservoir and flumes belonging to the Lihue plantation were broken. Several horses and carriages were washed to sea from the Spitz stables. Many bridges in different parts of the island have been washed out.

CAPT. H. E. MORTON, LATE P. M. SKIPPER, TO SERVE BRITAIN

[By Latest Mail]

SAN FRANCISCO.—Captain Henry E. Morton, for many years a skipper in the Pacific Mail Company and former social lion of the transpacific run, is in line to add further laurels to his career. According to a letter received by Captain Charles A. Stephens, formerly deputy surveyor of the port, the one-time commander of the liner Mongolia has given his services to the British in the great European struggle and is now master of the Duc de Montpensier's yacht Mekong, which has been impressed as a dispatch-boat by the British Asiatic squadron. Captain Morton penned the epistle to Stephens just before he was ordered out of Nagasaki "to a certain point where a big naval battle is expected to take place."

According to the captain's letter, the Duc offered his yacht, which flies the ensign of the royal naval reserve, to the British authorities in the Far East at the outbreak of the war. The Mekong, being a fleet vessel and carrying several guns, was just what the Britishers wanted, and they accepted the offer immediately.

"I was offered the choice of holding the command by the ambassador at Tokyo," writes Captain Morton; "and after ascertaining that it would not hurt my United States standing in any way I accepted."

Under the auspices of Miss Florence Yarrow and other members of the Methodist church, special services were held at the Leahi home yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock which were greatly enjoyed by the inmates. Two meetings were held, one for women and the other for men. Miss Yarrow spoke at the former and Peter Tosh addressed the men. The meetings were presided over by John M. Martin.

In the opinion of Attorney General Carmody of New York state, county and city officials are not barred from the constitutional convention next spring.

Eighteen women received notice of their appointment as delegates to the New York state constitutional convention this fall.
